Loose Leaf Tea Selection

Fairmont Vancouver Airport "Jetsetter"
Our signature tea! This low caffeine blend has been specifically designed to aid you in recovery from jetlag. A rich, flavourful cup that tends to be lightly astringent with malty character. When accompanied with honey from our own hives, this tea grown in the Himalayan foothills gives a finish reminiscent of buttery toast.

Organic Eclipse Blend
Moody and full on the nose, the cup opens with astringent malt leading to hints of oak cask and delicate citrus.

Genmaicha Akaike
Ancient tea of the Samurai. Grassy, vegetative character is perfectly balanced by warm, full-bodied oaky notes that are almost chewable.

Japan Sencha Fukujyu
Clean and refreshing cup. Exceptionally fresh nose cup offers crisp notes of grass, light touch of honey and faint moss.

Cascade Peppermint
August harvest, sun-dried, machine-milled peppermint from Washington State. Each sip literally takes your breath away.

Egyptian Chamomile
Stunning chamomile from the Nile Delta. Pale cup is delightfully aromatic with a light body and expressive, refreshing apple-like character.

Fairmont Breakfast
Premium Indian, Sri Lanken, Kenyan, and Chinese blend. Malty, brisk and full-bodied, peppered with hints of jam, toast and delicate citrus.

Earl Grey
Aromatic bergamont character blends in perfect harmony with a flavourful high grown Ceylon. Citrus notes lead to a long finish.

Berry Berry
Berry-berrylicious! Righ burgundy infusion fills the palate with deep berry notes that virtually jump out of the cup.

Safari Masala Chai
A journey of tea and spice. Robust cup pairs malty depths of a second flush Assam with intoxicating Malabar spice.

Ti Kuan Yin "Iron Goddess"
A distinctive light tea bearing hints of orchid-like flavor. A resemblance to chamomile calm yet embodying an Asian affair.

Lung Ching-Ceremonial Dragonwell Yixing
A luxurious tea, hand massaged in a large wok over a low heat source in the Zhejiang province, these leaves deliver a hint of sweetness amidst an enchanting green tea taste, shadowed by aromatic flowery notes.
