Activities on the MOUNTAIN & IN SURROUNDINGS

ALPINE TOURING

Take on the mountain differently this winter! Climb the highest mountain in the Laurentians with your skis on, on designated wooded trails, and make your way down one of the 102 marked ski runs!

SNOWSHOEING

Explore nature at your own pace on over 27 kilometers of trails for all levels. The network winds through Mont-Tremblant, past streams and waterfalls. Some trails are even dog-friendly. Information, rental and tickets at the Chalet des Voyageurs office.

CROSS-COUNTRY SKIING

Discover trails that stretch over 120 square kilometers of wooded terrain, forests, meadows, lakes, streams and, above all, the Rivière du Diable. Some peaks offer some of the finest views in the region. Rentals and tickets available at Chalet des Voyageurs.

ICE SKATING

Enjoy a lit ice rink near the Saint-Bernard chapel, then warm up by the campfire while listening to music. Free skate rental with proof of accommodation.

FAT BIKE

Rent a bike right at the base of the pedestrian village and explore the multifunctional track and numerous trails! The Mont-Tremblant region is filled with breathtaking landscapes and offers numerous possibilities for fat bike and electric fat bike outings, a treat for all nature lovers! Guided tours available.

CARRIAGE RIDE

Enjoy a carriage ride at dusk or in the dark, while your guide tells local legends and sings folk songs. The ride starts in fields and makes its way through the forest. Enjoy a cup of hot chocolate midway.

ICE CLIMBING

Take up the challenge! An introduction to ice climbing on the Tremblant site. The instructor will teach you belaying, abseiling and basic climbing principles. This beginner activity requires no climbing experience. By reservation only.

SNOW TUBING

An ideal après-ski or evening activity for the whole family! Ride down the slope on an inflatable tube, then take the lift to the top. Eight runs from beginner to expert. 15-minute drive from the hotel.

Resort activities are subject to change and could be cancelled without notice.
