Royal York High Tea

Tea has been an essential aspect of The Fairmont Royal York Hotel since its opening in 1929. More than 80 years later its dedication to British tradition still prevails with the Afternoon Tea service. A tradition centuries old, culturally vast and full of rich history, tea drinking has been enjoyed and celebrated in many different ways.

As an alternative to the traditional lunch or dinner meeting, it is common for colleagues to discuss matters over afternoon tea. Accepted by most cultures, this relaxed business setting is an ideal way to begin a meeting with a common tradition. When indulging in Afternoon Tea with the Fairmont Royal York, guests can be sure to feel steeped in welcoming service. With certified tea sommeliers on hand, guests will be served a carefully selected, perfectly steeped tea. Sommeliers have been educated on how climate, geographic location and the picking process all affect the tea leaves and will ensure that each guest leaves more knowledgeable of the tea experience.
