

Four seasons of outdoor fun.

Québec City is a unique year-round destination with seasons that roll together in an ever-changing symphony of colors and sensations.

Right in the heart of the city are the Plains of Abraham, an immense urban park where people love to ski, stroll, mountain bike, picnic, inline skate, and simply relax. Within minutes of the center of town are mountains, lakes, rivers, protected wilderness areas, rolling farmland, and much more.

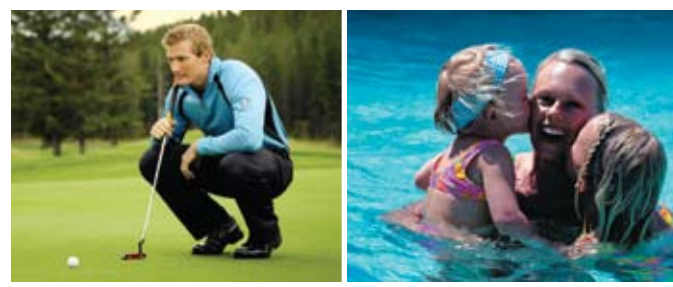

Winter in Québec City means guaranteed snow and outdoor enjoyment. When summer makes its appearance, the whole city moves outdoors to enjoy the sidewalk cafés, parks, open-air concerts, and lively street life.
