

ALOHA & WELCOME

To the Hawaiian people, aloha is an act of unconditional friendship, trust and welcome. “Alo” means to be “in the presence of another person” and “ha” translates to “breath,” which is a symbol of life. The spirit of aloha is embodied throughout the Hawaiian Islands and is considered one of the Hawaiian culture’s core values. It is our sincere pleasure to welcome you with aloha to Fairmont Kea Lani.

WATER SAFETY

For your safety, please follow all rules and regulations while enjoying the beach and pools. Warning flags for ocean conditions:

- 🚩 A red flag indicates high surf, strong currents and/or dangerous shore breaks.
- 🚩 A yellow flag signals jellyfish, men o'war or sea urchins are prevalent in the area.

Please familiarize yourself with the warning flags and signs. In the event you do not see any warning, contact a beach or pool attendant to confirm water conditions. Please note there are no lifeguards on duty at any time. To ensure the safety of our guests, we do not issue snorkel or boogie board equipment when flags are present.

TELEPHONE DIRECTORY

We'd be happy to help you with whatever you need. Contact Royal Service via the “Royal Service” button on your villa or suite phone.

Please be advised: for the comfort and enjoyment of all our guests, portable music players not accompanied by headphones are prohibited at the pool area. Maui County liquor laws prohibit personal alcohol containers at the pool.
