MEETINGS THAT MATTER

The Mustard Seed Edmonton

The Mustard Seed helps meet the basic needs of shelter, food, clothing and acceptance for men and women experiencing poverty, and works with them to find sustainable housing and employment.

Option 1: Groups can have the Manager of Food Services plan the menu and order the food. With a donation of $1,000, the group covers the cost of food, materials and overhead for the evening meal. The group goes to The Mustard Seed to prepare and serve the evening meal and help with the clean-up.

Option 2: Groups can plan a menu with the Manager of Food Services and purchase the ingredients for the meal at The Mustard Seed. The meal group provides plates, cutlery and napkins for the meal, as well as a $100 donation to cover the overhead for the evening.

Option 3: Groups can prepare the food offsite, once it is prepared in a Government Inspected Kitchen. The meal group will also provide the plates, cutlery and napkins needed for the meal, as well as a $100 donation to cover the overhead for the evening.
