

INSPIRED CONFERENCES AND EVENTS

MAY 2010

Fairmont Mount Kenya Safari Club, ideally situated less than three hours by road from Nairobi, is the ideal location for a successful and productive conference, team building or a private function in a unique setting. The Kirinyaga Room has now been remodeled to offer a multifunctional conference and banqueting venue right on the Equator.

Business in an unique setting

Nestled in the lush foothills of Mount Kenya, this beautiful place is home to Fairmont Mount Kenya Safari Club, a historic hotel with a warm Kenyan welcome, luxury amenities and a wealth of indoors and outdoors activities. With its elegant design, each of the hotel’s 120 guest rooms, suites and cottages have thoughtful touches which include magnificent views of the mountain, open fires and en suite bathrooms with separate rain showers. The Business Center provides Internet access, email, photocopy and general secretarial services where you can put those finishing touches to your presentation.

Spacious, flexible and stylish meeting facilities

The Kirinyaga Room, which is 306 sqm, no obstruction and natural day light, can be subdivided in two conference rooms – Kirinyaga I (154sqm) and Kirinyaga II (88sqm) – as well as a break out area. The room has Internet connectivity, hi tec audio visual equipment, adjustable light settings and air-conditioning. Coffee breaks and/or lunch can also be organised in the courtyard on the Equator line. For corporate events or private functions, pre-dinner drinks can be served on the courtyard while The Kirinyaga Room will accommodate up to 200 guests for a sit down dinner and up to 260 for a cocktail reception.

Three other conference rooms ranging from 16 to 50 delegates are also available.

Stunning setting, delicious cuisine
