Pae mai la ka wa'a i ka 'āina

The canoe has come ashore

An evening at the beautiful Fairmont Orchid, Hawai'i enjoying the elegance and beauty of the South Kohala Coast and the ambiance of the land area known as Kalahuipua'a.

Steeped in tradition and history, Kalahuipua'a is known as a gathering place for Ali'i (royalty) and special visitors. An evening at the Hawai'i Loa Lū'au is full of this same tradition of Hawaiian culture and hospitality.

Join us weekly for an evening of special memories... the finest cuisine prepared by an award winning culinary team.... An internationally renowned cast of performers sharing the stories of Hawai'i through live music and dance.

Meet the performers before the show and learn about the traditional games and cultural practices of the people. A hosted bar and a spectacular buffet dinner offer the freshest and finest ingredients found in the islands.

Story telling begins as beautiful hula dancers and talented musicians share the tales of Polynesia's brave and courageous voyagers - as they traveled to Hawai'i and established this land. Our family from Tahiti share the stories of their journey to Hawai'i, with the lively beat of the traditional toere drum. Your hosts for the evening tell the story of their home in Hawai'i with traditional hula. The influence of other cultures can be seen in the evolution of costumes and hula motions as we share the unique and incredible history of the island of Hawai'i.

Kalahuipua'a

Kalahuipua'a (gathering place) was a significant location for the chiefs of Hawai'i, now known as the Mauna Lani Resort area. The performance and island feast are held at the Fairmont Orchid outdoor setting, Plantation Estates, bordered by towering palm trees near the Tennis Pavilion and a short walk from the hotel's main entrance.
