LOCAL SEASONAL SUSTAINABLE

We create our menu using ingredients that are primarily locally sourced from the US Eastern Seaboard. Ingredients that are not available nearby or out of season will be sourced from elsewhere in the USA first and only then globally. We are proud to design dishes reflecting seasonal flavors and focusing on environmental sustainability.

FARMERS SPOTLIGHT

Smucker Farms of Lancaster County

Eric Smucker sources the best ingredients from small Amish and Mennonite farmers in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania to bring DC an incredible array of meats, cheeses, and produce as well as hand made soaps, toys and other artisan crafted products. The farms he supports are all chemical free and committed to sustainable agriculture and their communities.

Samuels and Sons

A five-generation family run seafood company from Philadelphia which sources the best, freshest and most ecologically harvested seafood. We work with them to ensure we are serving the best each season has to offer from Chesapeake Bay and the Eastern Seaboard.

Path Valley Farms

This collective of Amish farmers in Path Valley, Pennsylvania provides a great variety of fruit, vegetables, herbs, eggs, nuts and more. Many are organic and all share a love for preserving their agricultural heritage on small family run farms.

Eco Friendly Foods

Bev Eggleston's sustainable farming model is good for the farmer, the animal, the consumer, the environment and, ultimately, our planet. His company provides humanely raised pigs, beef, chickens and more from a network of family farms devoted to producing the best possible pasture raised meat. Most farms are from Virginia and North Carolina. He created his own breed of pig, called the 'Farmers Cross', which combines the best characteristics of the Duroc, Berkshire and Tamworth breeds.

Nutritious meals designed around select dietary needs and diet-dependent requirements. Created using fresh and nutritionally balanced ingredients, Fairmont Lifestyle Cuisine Plus dishes contribute to optimal health & wellness.
