

Welcome to the Fairmont Washington D.C, Georgetown!

The Fairmont has been a long time supporter of equal rights for the LGBT community. We are proud that the District of Columbia has created marriage equality and even more proud that you chose to be our guest. We hope you love this city as much as we do and hope we can help you create wonderful memories in the nation's capital.

Often Overlooked Things to do

Meridian Hill Park

Between 15 & 16 NW and Florida and Euclid

Beautiful European style park with statues and fountains. Great people watching. Picnics. Drum circles on Sunday afternoons.

Exorcist Steps

On M Street just north of Georgetown right next to the Exxon Gas station

Steps from the 70's classic. Nice place to stop after a Georgetown spending spree.

Hirschhorn Museum

7th Street and Independence Avenue SW

Wonderful modern art museum and sculpture garden. Great gift shop.

Library of Congress

101 Independence Avenue SE

One of the most overlooked gems in the city. The reading room is one of the most beautiful rooms in the world. You can view Thomas Jefferson's collection which started the world's largest library.

United States Botanic Garden

Just south and west of the US Capitol

A wonderful indoor botanic garden housed in an Art Deco glass greenhouse just footsteps away from the Capitol. Many unusual, beautiful and exotic species including orchids.
