OUR STORY...

A centuries old concept. Reimagined.

In ancient seaside villages throughout northern Japan, local fishermen gathered to grill their fresh catch over premium binchotan (white charcoal) and swap stories well into the night. Perfecting a grilling technique known as robatayaki (fire-side cooking), they used extra hard Ubame Oak that grew in the forested hills of Kinshu to slow-cook their seafood, vegetables and premium cuts of meat.

Inspired by this shared style of cooking over an open flame, we now invite you to join us on a culinary adventure with family and friends. Our menu features plates of grilled delicacies meant to be shared, hand-crafted sushi and ohana (family) platters designed for a feast. Our full service bar showcases artisan cocktails, premium sake and a vast collection of whiskey. Indulge in a flavorful feast as you raise a glass of Muay Tai to toast the most glorious sunsets over the Kohala Coast!
