AT THE FAIRMONT LE MANOIR RICHELIEU

LA MALBAIE (Québec), Canada, March 11, 2021 - The management of the Fairmont Le Manoir Richelieu Hotel is pleased to announce the appointment of Sébastien Grangier as Executive Chef effective March 9, 2021.

With the support of a brigade of over fifty people, Chef Grangier's main function will be to maintain the high standards of quality in the five dining outlets, Le Bellerive, Le Saint-Laurent, Le Bar La Brise, Le Point Cardinal as well as banqueting functions.

Sébastien will use his creative mind and work closely with local suppliers and his team of sous-chefs to develop new menus according to the seasons. "My goal is to give each guest a unique culinary experience. Without good products, there is no good cuisine" says Chef Grangier.

Born in the south-east of France, Sébastien Grangier has over 25 years of experience in the culinary field. His career began in 1997 as a waiter at La Coupole in Aix-en-Provence and then became manager of the Unic bar in the same region. He continued his career in this field, which he is passionate about, by starting his own business, Les délices de Sébastien, which he ran for almost 10 years. In 2018, he decided to pursue a dream that is dear to him, to establish himself in Quebec, by joining the ranks of the Fairmont Le Manoir Richelieu first as Chef de Partie, then as Sous-Chef and then as Executive Sous-Chef.

Sébastien trained at the Association de Formation Professionnelle d'Istres in 2005 and was certified as a pastry chef in 2009. With his solid experience, his commitment to mentoring and his promise to offer innovative cuisine, Chef Grangier will successfully fulfill his new role. The management of the Fairmont Le Manoir Richelieu is delighted with the addition of Sébastien Grangier to its team.
