PERFORMER BIOS

Adam Thomas

Performing a diverse array of music ranging from favorite radio hits to the classic big band era, Adam's unique sound combines elements of soul, jazz, indie and top 40 music. Aside from Adam's own compositions, his performing song book includes hits by artists such as Sam Smith, Drake, Norah Jones, Coldplay, Al Green, Radiohead, Stevie Wonder and many others, all covered with a sweet soulful taste.

Andrew Mockler

Andrew is a multi-instrumentalist who plays bass and piano in addition to his main forte of vocals and guitar.

Antonio Larosa

Burnaby raised singer-songwriter and guitarist, Antonio, has rich vocals used to channel artist's such as Johnny Cash, Elvis Presley, Bob Segar, Peter Frampton, and Glen Campbell. Antonio's performance is not one to be missed for the rock, blues and country lover.

Cole Petrone

Renown for both his creative lyrics and lush melodies, as well as his dynamic live performances, Cole is an extremely talented singer/songwriter who's words and music have struck a chord with thousands of appreciative listeners worldwide.

Cory Curtis

Originally from Manitoba, Cory Curtis is a performance professional having toured the world with original artists for a decade as well as being a founding member of the Vancouver cover band, SideOne. He has a wide range of contemporary music as well as classic songs and a very unique voice; not your average acoustic guitar performer.

Dan Hare

Often referred to as "The Voice," Dan is an acoustic artist who can capture the emotion of the timeless classics from artists like James Taylor, Jim Croce, Gordon Lightfoot, and many more. Smooth, polished, and experienced, he is the consummate professional.

Dani Le Rose

After spending years in the studio writing crafted evocative songs and being the voice and front-woman for the Electro-Alternative Pop project, 'Jade the Moon', Dani is now ready to unveil unreleased music for her now solo venture, 'DANI Le Rose'. Dani was recently nominated for "Best Urban Artist of the Year" in the 2017 WCMA Awards, made it to the finals in SOCAN's Canadian Songwriting Competition and her song, 'Cruel' was recently featured in Galore Magazine worldwide.

Dave Paterson

For the past twenty years Dave has been a distinctive performer on the west coast scene in both acoustic and electric blues. As a solo act Dave re-interprets the country blues on vintage guitars while accompanying himself on harmonica (rack style). With a repertoire that ranges from Robert Johnson and Jimmy Reed on through to Hank Williams, listeners are taken down the country roads and railway lines of the 30's, 40's & 50's.

David Capper

David Capper is a Vancouver based singer/songwriter and entertainer that has been performing professional for over a decade. Coming from a diverse musical background, David has played in genres as varied as jazz, country, musical theatre and folk.

David Martone

To listen to the music of Dave Martone is like experiencing a simultaneous explosion of sound, color and flavour. Sometimes over the top, sometimes minimalistic and sometimes a mixture of both, Martone never ceases to amaze with his talents on the instrument and is one of Canada's finest guitarists to date!

Des Larson

Des' music provides listeners with a robust sound of pop melodies paired with a symmetrical balance of acoustic and electronica. As much as Larson is a musician, he is an equal performer.

Jeff Bryant

Jeff has been performing music in one form or another for the last 20 years. After several years playing music in Toronto with his original band, The Human Statues, Jeff returned to Vancouver to pursue new opportunities in music, theatre and voice over. Jeff was a featured performer in the critically acclaimed productions of Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story, staged by the Arts Club Theatre Company. Additionally, Jeff has been singing at weddings and corporate events as a proud member of the award winning band, Side One, since 2011.

Michael Fabro

Michael is a Canadian acoustic pop-rock performance artist. With a focus on crowd-pleasing hits and infectious vocal hooks this young artist has fused multiple styles into a dynamic live act.

Neal Ryan

Neal Ryan is a great singer-songwriter, and accompanies himself on acoustic guitar. Originally from Ireland, he now makes his home in Vancouver.

Nikita Alfonso

Voted as 2015's Best Musician in the South Okanagan by Okanagan Life Magazine, Nikita's music speaks to the heart and touches the soul. The folky country pop melodies and honest lyrics mixed with breathy yet strong vocals captivate audiences from the vibrant young to the charming old.

Olaf De Shield

His main musical styles are Soul, Rhythm & Blues, Jazz, and Pop. He is an accomplished guitarist, vocalist, and arranger, and has played and recorded with a host of regional and international artists over the years.

Rob Eller

Rob is a one-man cover band, crooning everything from Dave Matthews to Steppenwolf. Although the tunes are at once identifiable, Rob adds his own unique timbre to every note.

Rose Ranger

Raised on the North Shore of Vancouver, Rose wears many hats in the entertainment biz as a singer, songwriter, voice over artist, and actor. From Top 40 Pop to Electronic, Country and Singer-Songwriter genres, Rose co-writes with numerous multi-award winning hit songwriters. She has been a guest performer for Stiletto Entertainment and Disney Cruise Lines, is a vocalist with Cirque Du Soleil, and performs internationally as a solo artist and with her band.

Scott Perrie

A Vancouver based actor, singer, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist, he got his start at 9 years old performing in the choir in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat with Donny Osmond at the Queen Elizabeth Theatre. Scott has toured across Canada, playing in living rooms, pubs, and festivals from coast to coast, performing original music as well as cover songs. Playing a perfect blend of classic and contemporary material "his guitar plucking is clean and confident, and his smoothly soulful crooning is absolutely note-perfect" (Alex Hudson, Georgia Straight).

Vicky Sjohal

With a powerful voice and an energy that is pure and infectious, Vicky has a captivating stage presence.
